Keeping your health a top priority while in Australia

Health care systems vary greatly all around the world and navigating your way through Australia's can be confusing.

As a visitor to Australia we believe it is important that you understand how the Australian health care system works and what options are available to ensure you and your family's health care needs can be met while you are here.

Like most countries in the world, health care costs in Australia can be expensive. Even a few days in hospital for a routine operation can cost thousands of dollars in hospital charges and doctors' fees.

The Australian health care system has two main components.

First, there's Medicare, our national health care system, which provides eligible Australian residents with access to free treatment as public patients in public hospitals and free or subsidised treatment by doctors and other health professionals.

The second is private health insurance which many Australians purchase to help cover the cost of going to a private hospital and receiving other health services usually not covered by Medicare.

Some visitors to Australia have restricted access to Medicare for medically necessary treatment because their country has a reciprocal health care agreement with Australia. Refer to page 18 to see if this applies to you.

However, most visitors and temporary workers have no access to Medicare. That's why as a visitor to Australia, it's worth considering private health insurance so you can keep your health a top priority. Choose Medibank and you'll be with one of Australia's largest private health insurers.

Choosing the right cover is easy

There are three key areas of health cover that visitors should consider when in Australia: hospital, medical and extras.

Hospital

Helps with the cost of being treated in a private hospital or a public hospital as a private patient. It also allows you to choose your own doctor, as well as which hospital you would prefer to attend.

Medical

Helps to cover the cost of doctors' services provided in and out of hospital.

Extras

Helps you with the cost of services that are not usually provided by hospitals such as dental, physiotherapy, optical items and more.

What level of cover will suit you?

There are several options to choose from depending on your visa type, needs and budget.

These range from basic cover, which is suitable for young and healthy, budget conscious visitors and students on bridging visas waiting for permanent residency, through to comprehensive cover designed for visitors on extended stays or retirement visas.

Here is a snapshot of the different covers:

The table above does not contain a complete list of visa sub class classifications and visa sub class numbers which are subject to change by the Australian government from time to time. If at any time you gain access to full Medicare entitlements or your visa status changes (eg. you are granted permanent residency), Visitors Health Insurance may no longer be suitable for you. In these instances you should notify Medibank of the change in your circumstances. If your visa sub class is not mentioned here, you can call us on 132 331 (+61 3 8622 5780 if calling from outside Australia) or visit a Medibank store to find a cover that's right for you.

Cover for hospital treatment

What benefits are paid?

For the services included under each of our covers, we'll pay benefits (less any applicable excess) towards:

- private hospital accommodation
 - overnight accommodation in a private or shared room
 - same day admissions
 - intensive care
 - theatre fees
- public hospital accommodation as a private patient
 - overnight accommodation in a private or shared room
 - same day admissions (shared room only)
- doctors' fees for in-hospital medical services when you are treated as a private patient
- surgically implanted prostheses and other items on the Federal Government's Prostheses Schedule.

Please note that any charge above your benefit will form part of your out-of-pocket expenses (see page 23 for more information).

Prescription only pharmaceuticals – important information

You may incur significant out-of-pocket expenses if high cost pharmaceuticals are required for your treatment when in hospital. This is because the Visitors Health Insurance covers described in this brochure only pay limited benefits for pharmaceuticals. More information is available in our Visitors Health Insurance Membership Guide.

Most international visitors to Australia are not eligible for subsidised pharmaceuticals under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS).

Pharmaceuticals used in oncology (cancer) and other treatments can be very expensive for people who do not have access to subsidised pharmaceuticals.

For more information on the PBS visit health.gov.au

Go to Things worth knowing for more information on waiting periods and other benefit assessment information. See page 20

What's an excess?

An excess is an amount you must pay towards the cost of your hospital treatment. An excess applies per person per calendar year and doesn't apply to children on your membership.

Cover for medical treatment

The medical component pays benefits towards medical services that are listed under the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) and provided either in or out of hospital by a doctor (eg. general practitioner or specialist).

The MBS lists a standard fee for most surgical and medical procedures (MBS fee). The amount of benefit you can expect to receive from us is calculated as a percentage of the MBS fee. However, you'll have to pay any additional cost if the doctor charges you more than the benefits we pay you.

For example, we pay benefits for medical services such as doctor's visits, pathology, surgeon's fees and anaesthetist's fees.

With Top 85 Visitors Health Insurance you'll generally receive a higher benefit payment than with Young Visitors Health Insurance or Intermediate 70 Visitors Health Insurance.

Go to Things worth knowing for more information on waiting periods, other benefit assessment information and benefits for pharmaceuticals, see pages 20 - 22.

Percentage back at Members' Choice providers

You'll get a percentage back of the charge when you visit a Members' Choice extras provider for eligible services (up to applicable limits) and for other providers and some items you'll get a fixed benefit.

Fixed benefit

You'll receive a fixed benefit when you visit a non Members' Choice provider. A fixed benefit is the maximum amount we'll pay for each service or item (up to applicable limits). Usually it will be less than the provider's charge, which means you may have out-of-pocket expenses to pay.

Annual limits

This is the maximum amount we'll pay for items or services in a calendar year.

The benefit we pay for a particular item or service may be less than the annual limit and less than your provider's charge, which means you may have out-of-pocket expenses to pay. See page 23 for more information.

Orthodontic entitlement

You start with an opening balance in the first year and you're topped up with an additional amount each full calendar year of membership up to a maximum lifetime limit for your level of cover. Once you've served your 12 month waiting period, you can claim up to 100% of your balance.

Benefit replacement period

Benefit replacement periods may apply for some services/items. See page 22 for more information.

We've negotiated capped charges or discounts with the following healthcare professionals so you can claim a percentage back* of 70% or 85% depending on your level of cover:

- ✓ Dental
- ✓ Physio
- ✓ Chiro
- ✓ Naturopathy
- ✓ Acupuncture
- ✓ Remedial Massage
- ✓ Podiatry

Members' Choice

It's pretty simple: visit a Members' Choice extras provider or hospital and you can save money.

Our Members' Choice network is one of the largest health provider networks in Australia, covering most private hospitals and the widest range of extras services of any health fund.

We've negotiated with many healthcare professionals, so you won't be charged more than the agreed price. We've also negotiated discounts off normal prices at optical retailers and for orthotics.

A Members' Choice extras provider must agree to and meet Medibank's customer service standards in addition to meeting any registration standards for practising that profession.

Hospitals

Visit a Members' Choice hospital and you'll get better value for money compared to a non Members' Choice private hospital as long as the service you receive is covered by our agreement with the hospital and is included under your cover.

What about your out-of-pocket expenses?

Even if you go to a Members' Choice hospital, you're still likely to have out-of-pocket expenses. The hospital and doctors treating you should tell you about their costs before you go to hospital – so it's important to ask.

Give us a call before you go to hospital so we can help you ask the right sort of questions. See page 23 for more information.

Things worth knowing

Understanding private health insurance can be complicated. This section is designed to help make things a little easier for you.

It contains some important information about our covers along with explanations of commonly used terms you may not be familiar with. It also gives you an overview of some of our key rules.

It's important you have a good look through the Visitors Health Insurance Membership Guide which is available at medibank.com.au. You'll also receive a copy of this once you join. This contains a summary of the rules of your membership (known as our Fund Rules) – things like your responsibilities as a member. It's important to read the Cover Summary where you'll receive further details about your cover and entitlements.

Helping you choose the right cover

Is Visitors Health Insurance right for me?

Medibank Visitors Health Insurance covers are designed for visitors, temporary residents, residents of Norfolk Island and other residents in Australia who are not eligible for full Medicare entitlements.

Reciprocal Health Care Agreements

Australia has Reciprocal Health Care Agreements with the United Kingdom, New Zealand, Italy, Belgium, Malta, the Netherlands, Sweden, Finland, Norway and the Republic of Ireland. If you're a resident of a country which has a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement with Australia, you may be entitled to restricted access to Medicare, but only for medically necessary treatment. Post-arrival time limits and other restrictions may apply. So be sure to check what you're covered for before relying on a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement. For further information, please contact Medicare on 132 011.

What if I'm an international student?

If you're an international student with a valid student visa, our Visitors Health Insurance covers will not meet your student visa requirements. We recommend you purchase Medibank Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) which is specifically designed with the needs and budgets of students in mind. You can purchase your OSHC online at medibank.com.au/oshc or visit a Medibank store.

What if I'm on a working visa?

If you're in Australia on a working visa, our Visitors Health Insurance may not meet any visa requirements you might have. We recommend you purchase one of our Working Visa Health Insurance covers which meet the Australian Government's 457 working visa requirements. Refer to our separate brochure which you can download from medibank.com.au or visit a Medibank store. You can also call us on 132 331 for more information.

What happens if I become a permanent resident?

If you are granted permanent residency our Visitors Health Insurance covers may not be the most suitable cover for your needs. When your residency status changes remember to call us on 132 331 to discuss your options.

About your membership with us

Do you have a 'cooling-off' period?

If you join but then decide you'd like to either cancel your membership or move to another cover, we have what is known as a 'cooling-off' period. This also applies if you're already a member and have recently changed your cover.

As long as you tell us within 30 days of your cover commencing, and no claims have been made against your cover there's no problem. We can either transfer you to a more suitable cover or refund your premium in full.

If you close your membership after the 'cooling-off' period we will refund any unused premium less an administration fee.

How often should I review my cover?

You may have different health needs at different stages of your life, so it makes sense to review your health cover regularly. This is especially important if your situation changes. For example, if you are granted permanent residency, if you're planning to start a family, the kids have grown up or either you or someone in your family has developed a health issue. Whatever your situation, it's a good idea to call us to discuss your options on 132 331 or drop into one of our stores.

What is the difference between a member, a membership and a contributor?

There are three terms we use when we're talking about membership: member, membership and contributor. As a starting point, it's good to be clear on all three. A member is simply any person covered under a Medibank Private membership.

A membership is made up of one or more members and can consist of:

- just one person (single membership)
- a couple membership which covers you (the contributor) and your spouse/partner
- family membership, which covers you and your spouse/partner and
 - any of your child dependants and/or
 - any of your student dependants

The term contributor refers to the person who 'owns' the membership. This is the person we contact when we need to communicate important information.

Can my partner manage my membership too?

Although you as the contributor 'own' the membership, your partner (if he or she is also covered by the same membership) can automatically manage most aspects of the membership too, including: making claims, adding or removing dependants, changing cover, suspending the membership and changing contact and bank account details.

However, as the contributor you're the only one who can remove yourself from the membership or cancel the membership. It's important to be aware that this means we may disclose registered membership details to both of you. If at any time you want to be the only person who can manage the membership or you require further information about the handling of personal information, please call us on 132 331.

If I transfer to Medibank from another Australian private health insurer, am I covered immediately?

In some cases yes, in other cases no. You'll be covered for services on your new cover from the date you join if: (i) those services were also included on your cover with your former health insurer (ii) you join us within two months of leaving your former health insurer and (iii) you've already served the applicable waiting periods. So although we'll recognise any waiting periods you've served with your former fund, if you haven't fully served the applicable waiting periods, you'll need to serve the balance with us before you're eligible for benefits.

Additional waiting periods will also apply if you've switched to a higher level of cover with Medibank or if you wait more than two months after leaving your former fund before you join Medibank. For more information see page 20.

Any loyalty bonus or other similar entitlements built up with your former fund (eg. orthodontic entitlements) will not transfer to Medibank.

If you transfer to Medibank or to another Medibank cover, any benefits that may have been paid under your previous cover may be taken into account in determining the benefits payable under your new cover.

What if I want to add my partner to my single membership?

It's easy to change from a single to a family membership, but you should be aware that higher premiums apply to a family membership and additional waiting periods may apply to your partner.

Can I add a dependent child to my membership? If you're on a single membership:

To add a dependent child to your membership you'll need to change from a single to a family membership. If you do this within two months of the date of their birth or inclusion in your family unit (eg. through marriage, adoption or fostering) your child won't have to serve any additional waiting periods. The change will be backdated to the date of birth or inclusion in your family unit. Also, this change of membership means you'll pay higher premiums.

If you're on a family membership:

You can add a dependent child to your membership at any time and they won't need to serve any waiting periods already served on the membership. Your premium doesn't increase if you add a dependent child to your cover.

What if I want more information on adding a dependent child?

Call us on 132 331.

What happens if my newborn baby needs hospital treatment?

When a newborn baby is in hospital with its mother, no accommodation charges apply for the baby unless the baby becomes an admitted patient in their own right. This happens when the baby requires admission to a neo-natal intensive care unit or it is the second or later child of a multiple birth.

If I have children, how long can they be insured on my cover?

As your children grow older they can still be covered at no additional cost on your family membership until they turn 21 or, if they are full-time students, until they turn 25, provided they're not married or in a de facto relationship. This is because we consider them to be your dependent children.

About waiting periods

What is a waiting period?

All health funds have waiting periods. In short, a waiting period is a period of time you need to wait after taking out your cover before you can receive benefits for services or items covered.

You're not able to receive benefits for any items or services you might have obtained while you're serving a waiting period or before you joined Medibank.

How do I know if a waiting period applies to me?

Waiting periods will apply if you're a new member, you're rejoining Medibank after not having health cover for some time or you're changing to a higher level of cover (either within Medibank or transferring from another fund).

If you're changing to a higher level of cover, you'll still be entitled to benefits at the level of your former cover while you're serving any waiting periods on your new cover if:

- those services were included under your old cover; and
- you've already served the waiting periods that applied under your old cover.

How long is the waiting period?

That depends on the types of services or items included on your cover. Have a look at the following table for a guide.

2 months*	All services (including ambulance services) – except as specified below
6 months	Optical items
12 months	Pre-existing ailments
	Obstetrics-related services
	Major dental services
	Orthodontic treatment
	Dental surgical procedures and surgical extractions (eg. wisdom teeth)
	Nebulisers
	Peak flow meters
24 months	Spacing devices
	Blood glucose monitors
36 months	Hearing aids

*If you have an accident after joining us or changing cover and require treatment, we'll waive the 2 month waiting period.

About pre-existing ailments

It's standard practice in the private health insurance industry to apply a waiting period of 12 months before benefits are payable for a pre-existing ailment.

What's a pre-existing ailment?

By pre-existing ailment, we mean an ailment, illness or condition where signs or symptoms existed at any time during the 6 months before you either took out your new cover, or transferred to a higher level of cover. We'll appoint a medical or health practitioner to determine whether you have a pre-existing ailment, based on information provided by the practitioner(s) treating you.

What if I have a pre-existing ailment?

If you're a new member, you'll have to wait 12 months before you can receive benefits for items or services related to a pre-existing ailment.

If you're changing to a higher level of cover (either within Medibank or from another fund), you may have to wait 12 months to receive the higher benefits, including benefits for services not previously covered.

About benefits for pharmaceuticals

Visitors to Australia are generally ineligible for benefits under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS) so you may have significant out-of-pocket expenses. Benefits are not payable for oral contraceptives or for pharmaceuticals prescribed for cosmetic purposes.

How do orthodontic benefits work?

Your orthodontic entitlement starts with an opening balance, which you can access once your 12 month waiting period is served. Your balance is then topped up with an additional amount each 1 January following the completion of your waiting period up to a maximum lifetime limit.

Orthodontic entitlements available on each relevant product:

Cover	Opening balance	Additional annual top ups	Lifetime limit
Intermediate 70 Visitors Health Insurance	$800	$400	$2,400
Top 85 Visitors Health Insurance	$1,000	$500	$3,000

Example of orthodontic entitlements on each relevant product:

About benefit replacement periods

What's a benefit replacement period?

It's a period of time you need to wait after purchasing an item covered by us before you can receive further benefits to replace the item. For example, if you received benefits for an insulin delivery pen, purchased on 1 July 2011, you can only receive benefits for another one purchased on or after 1 July 2013.

How long is a benefit replacement period?

This varies from item to item and generally applies per member unless specified in the following table.

12 months	External mammary prostheses
	Repairs of external prostheses and health appliances
2 years	Wigs
	Hip protectors
	Insulin delivery pens
3 years	Blood glucose monitors
	Breathing appliances: - nebulisers - peak flow meters - spacing devices
	Mouthguards (for members up to 18 years of age, benefits may be payable for a replacement mouthguard each calendar year)
	Dentures, crowns and bridges
	Other health appliances and external prostheses
5 years	Hearing aids
	Sleep Apnoea – continuous pressure devices and other similar approved appliances under our hospital cover (excluding Young Visitors Health Insurance)

Other rules for paying benefits

Are there any other rules I need to know about?

Yes, there are some other important rules for you to be aware of.

- We only pay benefits for items and services delivered by Medibank-recognised providers.
- Restrictions may apply to the number of services you can claim in a particular period.
- Some appliances may need to be ordered by a medical practitioner before benefits are payable eg. nebulisers.
- To claim for a Sleep Apnoea device or similar device approved by Medibank, you'll need Intermediate 70 Visitors Health Insurance or Top 85 Visitors Health Insurance. You'll also need to undergo an overnight investigation for Sleep Apnoea which is listed in the Medicare Benefits Schedule. In addition the device must also be requested by a medical practitioner and purchased or hired within 12 months of undergoing the investigation.
- Limitations apply to some benefits. For example, for an initial consultation for an extras service, we generally pay the higher benefit (if any) per person, per provider, per calendar year only once in a course of treatment.
- Limited hospital benefits apply to podiatric surgery (performed by an accredited podiatrist) and dental procedures that are performed in a private non Members' Choice hospital.
- If you no longer need acute care and stay in hospital for more than 35 days, you'll be classified as a nursing home type patient. If this happens, we'll only pay a small portion of the daily hospital charges and you may need to pay the rest of the cost of your care. If you're in a private hospital, these costs may be substantial. Your doctor and hospital will be aware of this rule which applies to all health funds and they can advise you.
- We don't pay benefits for services or treatments where you are, or may be, entitled to compensation and/or damages. For example State Government workers' compensation schemes, traffic accident schemes or public liability claims.
- We generally don't pay benefits for hospital procedures not recognised for Medicare benefit purposes such as cosmetic surgery. However where eligible, we do pay benefits towards hospital charges for dental surgery or podiatric surgery (performed by an accredited podiatrist).
- Benefits are not payable for treatment not considered medically necessary (eg. health screening services as required for employment or visa renewal purposes).
- Benefits are not payable for treatment arranged prior to arrival in Australia.
- Benefits are not payable for services provided outside Australia.

About out-of-pocket expenses

What's an out-of-pocket expense?

It's any expense for a hospital, medical or extras service or item for which you won't be reimbursed by us.

What out-of-pocket expenses can I expect if I receive an extras service and how can I reduce them?

The out-of-pocket expense will be the difference between the provider's charge and the benefit we pay. To help reduce your out-of-pocket expenses, visit a Members' Choice extras provider where you can access capped charges and/or discounts and generally receive higher benefits than you would with a non Members' Choice provider.

What kind of out-of-pocket expenses can I expect if I go to a private hospital?

Although hospital cover helps reduce the cost of your private hospital visit, you'll still have out-of-pocket expenses for things like your excess and any difference between what the hospital charges and the benefit we pay for the hospital services.

You can also expect to pay the difference between the charge for in-hospital medical services (eg. doctors' services, pathology and radiology) and what you receive from us. To explain it further, the benefits you're entitled to for the medical services you receive while you're in an overnight or day hospital facility are based on the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) fee. The MBS is a list of all the services Medicare pays benefits for and the rules that apply to payment of those benefits.

If you visit a doctor and they charge you more than the MBS fee, you may have out-of-pocket expenses. These can vary and may be significant, especially for doctors' visits when you're in hospital.

How can I reduce my private hospital out-of-pockets?

If possible, go to a Members' Choice hospital where our agreement with the hospital limits what you can be charged. This means your out-of-pockets for hospital charges should be limited to things like:

- any excess you may have with your cover
- any difference between your doctors' charges (including pathology and radiology fees) and the benefits we pay you
- any difference between the amounts you are charged for pharmaceuticals (including drugs issued on discharge from hospital) that are not covered by our agreement with the hospital and the benefits available to you under the extras component of your cover for pharmaceutical prescriptions (excluding Young Visitors Health Insurance)
- any gap for surgically implanted prostheses and other items on the Federal Government's Prostheses Schedule
- costs for services not covered, or not fully covered, by our agreement with the hospital or under your cover
- costs for treatment in an emergency department in a private hospital.

If you go to a non Members' Choice private hospital, you're likely to have significant out-of-pocket expenses.

Going to hospital

Call us first on 132 331 so we can help you understand what's involved and the types of questions you need to ask your doctor or specialist.

It's important you call us on 132 331 for information on recognised providers and the benefits you're entitled to before commencing treatment.

Ambulance services

Benefits are payable in the following circumstances:

- when you need to be transported in an ambulance to a hospital or other approved facility in order to receive immediate professional attention
- when, as an admitted patient, you are transferred to another hospital (excluding transfers between public hospital facilities)
- when an ambulance is called to attend to you, but having received immediate professional attention transport by ambulance is not subsequently required
- air ambulance where pre-approval has been obtained from Medibank.

Benefits for medically necessary ambulance services are included in all covers described in this brochure.

Exceptions could include the following, where you're entitled to benefits from another source, such as ambulance subscription or state ambulance transport schemes. For more information, call us on 132 331.

About my premiums

If I cancel my membership, will I get a refund?

If you need to cancel your membership you may apply to claim a refund of premiums paid in advance and we may apply an administration fee. Please refer to the Visitors Health Insurance Membership Guide (available at medibank.com.au) for more information.

Are pre-paid premiums protected from rate increases?

Where premiums have been paid in advance of the rate increase, the new rates will apply from your next payment. However, if you change the level of your cover or membership category, the new rates will apply from the date of the change.

About taxation

If you're an Australian resident for taxation purposes you may be required to pay the Medicare Levy and the Medicare Levy Surcharge (MLS).

The Medicare Levy is imposed by the Australian Government to fund the Medicare scheme. It is normally calculated at 1.5% of your annual taxable income, but this rate may vary depending on your circumstances.

The MLS is a 1% surcharge imposed on individuals and families whose annual taxable income is over the applicable threshold who don't have an appropriate level of hospital cover for themselves and their dependants.

The 1% surcharge applies proportionately for the period during the financial year when an appropriate level of hospital cover was not held.

None of the Visitors Health Insurance covers mentioned in this brochure will exempt you from the Medicare Levy Surcharge.

For more information on the Medicare Levy or MLS, please contact the Australian Taxation Office on 132 861, or visit ato.gov.au

About Goods and Services Tax

Our Visitors Health Insurance covers are subject to a Goods and Services Tax (GST), which is included in the premium you pay. Under Medibank's Fund Rules, if you're on any of our Visitors Health Insurance covers it is assumed you have no entitlement to claim any part of the GST as an input tax credit. If you're eligible and intend to claim back part or all of the GST, you must notify us in writing.

Can I purchase cover before I arrive?

You can purchase your cover up to 12 months before you arrive in Australia. The maximum period of cover you can purchase in advance is 12 months. Medibank requires a minimum of one month's premium to be paid in advance, by direct debit, in which case the advance payment period may be shorter.

Can someone else purchase this cover for me?

A friend or relative can apply in advance for membership on your behalf, so that your membership can start from the moment you arrive.

When does my cover start?

If you join Medibank and pay your premiums in advance from outside Australia, your membership starts on the day you arrive in Australia. Waiting periods apply before you can claim benefits.

If you arrive on a date other than your expected date of arrival, please visit us at one of our stores so that our records can be changed to reflect the appropriate commencement date. You will need to bring your passport and membership card (if you already have one) with you to make this change.

If you join in Australia, your membership starts on the day you first pay your premiums, unless you have nominated a later date to be your commencement date, or on the date you transfer from your current health fund. Once your membership starts, you'll then begin to serve your waiting periods.

How can I pay?

Direct debit

Medibank's direct debit facility is a convenient and flexible way to pay your premiums. Your premiums are automatically deducted from your Australian bank, building society or credit union or a credit card* account. You also have the flexibility to choose when you'd like your payments to be made – fortnightly, four-weekly, monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, or yearly.

*Please note direct debit deductions from a credit card account can only be made at monthly intervals on the 11th of each month.

Other payment methods

Of course, if direct debit doesn't suit you, there are other payment options available. You can pay your premiums:

- at Medibank stores
- by BPAY[®] (through your participating financial institution), or by calling Australia Post on 131 816 and registering to pay through their Billpay service, or at any branch of Australia Post.

© Registered to BPay Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518

Important points to note about payment methods
